

Please encourage your TV stations to continue and to improve captioning of their programs, especially news and weather announcements. I am profoundly hard of hearing, and cannot hear either radio or TV, therefore I rely 100% on captioning. It is frightening when I'm not able to understand emergency announcements of impending storm / tornado / hurricane information.